

Vocalization Practice

1. There once was a sailor who looked through the glass and spied a fair mermaid with scales on her
2. Island where seagulls fly over and nest. She combed the long hair that hung over her
3. Shoulders, and caused her to tickle and itch. The sailor cried out “There’s a beautiful”
4. Mermaid a-settin’ out there on the rocks. The crew come a-runnin’ all grabbin’ their
5. Glasses and parted so fast to the rail, all eager to share in the fine piece of
6. News, which the captain soon heard from the watch. He tied down the wheel and he reached for his
7. Crackers and cheese, which he kept near the door, in case he might someday encounter a
8. Mermaid, he knew he must use all his wits. He cried “Throw a line out, we’ll lasso her
9. Flippers, and then we shall certainly find if mermaids are better before or be
10. Brave, my good sailors.” The captain then said “With fortune we’ll break through her mermaid-“
11. Heading for starboard, they tacked with dispatch. They caught that fair mermaid right under her
12. Elbows, and hustled her down below decks. Each took a turn at her feminine
13. Setting her free at the end of the farce. She splashed on the waves, landing flat on her
14. After a while, some men noticed some scabs. Soon they broke out with the pox and the
15. Scratching with fury and cursing with spleen.
16. This story is dull! But it’s certainly clean.

The Clean Song (Complete)

There once was a sailor who looked through the glass,
And spied a fair mermaid with scales on her...

Island, where seagulls fly over and nest.
She combed the long hair that hung over her...

Shoulders, and caused her to tickle and itch.
The sailor cried out “There’s a beautiful...

Mermaid a-settin’ out there on the rocks.
The crew come a-runnin’ all grabbin’ their...

Glasses, and parted so fast to the rail,
All eager to share in the fine piece of...

News, which the captain soon heard from the watch.
He tied down the wheel and he reached for his...

Crackers and cheese, which he kept near the door,
In case he might someday encounter a...

Mermaid, he knew he must use all his wits.
He cried “Throw a line out, we’ll lasso her...

Flippers, and then we shall certainly find
If mermaids are better before or be...

Brave, my good sailors.” The captain then said
“With fortune we’ll break through her mermaiden...”

Heading for starboard, they tacked with dispatch.
They caught that fair mermaid right under her...

Elbows, and hustled her down below decks.
Each took a turn at her feminine...

Setting her free at the end of the farce.
She splashed on the waves, landing flat on her...

After a while, some men noticed some scabs.
Soon they broke out with the pox and the...

Scratching with fury and cursing with spleen.

This story is dull!

But it’s certainly clean.